

The Dead Sea is shrinking,
But the Negev is starting to bloom.
Come to the PNAI convention.
Register early to get a room.
Who are the people who live there?
What problems do they face?
If you want to know what is happening,
Our convention is the place.
It's the place to meet friends
You have known from before,
To make new friends as well,
Play and learn and more.
So plan ahead,
Sign up today.
Be the first in your chapter.
Lead the way.

PNAI ALIVE AT THE DEAD SEA

October 8 – 12, 2007 at the Nirvana Hotel
$550 per person, double occupancy
Includes 11 meals (Mon. dinner through Fri. breakfast)
$226 additional for single room
These rates are for people with American passports.
Other rates will be available for people with Israeli passports.

If you are alone but would like to share a room we will try to help you.

There will be an optional 2 night Shabbat add on for those who want to stay and relax and perhaps bring their Israeli families to join them. More information on the program and rates will be available in the next issue. This will require a separate registration.

The 5 star Nirvana Hotel is the southernmost hotel directly on the Dead Sea at Ein Bokek. Bountiful meals are buffet style. The rooms are every comfortable, and the natural scenery changes as the sun moves across the horizon. There is a full spa and an indoor salt water pool as well as direct access to the beach. The gift shop specializes in Dead Sea products.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

Monday, October 8

1:00 – 4:00	Registration
4:00 – 5:30	Opening Session
6:30	Dinner
8:00	Speaker on current issues

Tuesday, October 9

9:30 – 12:00 AACI Panel
12:00 – 2:00 Lunch and free time
2:00 – 4:00 Panel of journalists
4:00 – 6:00 Possible shuk
6:30 Dinner
8:00 Dr.

Wednesday, October 10

9:00 Buses leave to visit
Sde Boker, Mitzpe Rimón Air Force Base and Mitzpe Rimón Visitor Center
6:30 Dinner
8:00 Entertainment

Thursday, October 11

9:00 Buses leave for Dead Sea Works
11:30 Lunch
1:00 Buses leave for Beersheba for city and University tour, memorial ceremony 6:00 Bedouin experience - lecture and
dinner

Friday, October 12

9:00 PNAI business meeting
12:00 Adjourn